The Course

Condensing the course into one year means that attendance is extremely important, as nothing will be repeated. If you miss a lesson resources will be available on the "Moodle" system (online SCOLA support). There will be no note taking in class. In its place there will be a wide variety of tasks to stimulate your interest like analysing political cartoons. You will get more than enough information and support to excel in the exam. The classes are for enjoyable activity based learning to improve your skills and historical understanding of exciting and relevant topics. Appreciate how close the World came to annihilation in 1962, the origins of Britain's involvement in Afghanistan

All students must take the accreditation.

Entry Requirements

Good literacy skills for the ability to research and write essays.

Please note that you must send the pre-entry assessment form with your enrolment and fee, so that we can identify any additional support needs. The form is in the prospectus or available from www.scola.ac.uk/enrol/form
