

Course Title:		ASDAN TI Current Affairs for adults with learning difficulties
Course Code:		W3100ZEF	Centre:	Wallington	Tutor:	Janet Docherty
Day:	Wed	Start Date:	15/09/10	Length:	32 weeks	Time:	13.00-15.00

Course Content/Syllabus

- Finding out about the news
- Looking at newspapers
- What is in the news
- Different types of news
- Making your own news
- Project work

After completing the course, students should be able to:

- Buy and look at different newspapers
- Share news stories with others
- Find out about local, national and international news
- Work as a group to produce a newspaper/newsletter/recording.

Assessment Methods

Courses are linked to foundation learning units of personal progress. Individual progress records are kept and photographic/video/audio evidence is used.

Courses accredited by ASDAN, OCN and OCR will be externally moderated.

Attendance

Regular attendance is a requirement factor of our entitlement criteria for the allocation of places on courses for adults with learning difficulties and/or disabilities, and will be monitored closely.

Entry Requirements

Please contact Michele Humphreys, LLDD Programme Manager, to arrange an assessment interview.

Tel. 020 8770 6919

Costs

All teaching materials are provided by the College.

Students may wish to bring money for a drink/snack at break-time.

Further Information

For further information or to obtain a copy of our LLDD Courses and Information booklet please contact Michele Humphreys.

Progression/Further Opportunities:

Our programme offers progression routes from pre-entry level to entry level, and within the entry level programme.

The College operates a co-student and volunteer scheme for learners to access appropriate mainstream provision.