Course Content/Syllabus

- Build on the knowledge, understanding and skills for GCSE, but also accommodate the needs of students who have an appropriate level of the language but have not studied for GCSE.
- Integrate, where appropriate, the skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing in the development of linguistic competence.
- Provide a coherent satisfying and worthwhile course of study for students who do not progress to further study in the subject.
- The main areas of topics to be covered are:
 - Youth culture & Concerns
 - Lifestyle: Health & Fitness
 - The World Around us: travel, tourism, environmental issues and the Target Language world
 - Education & Employment

After completing the course, students should be able to:

- Use a range of tenses and registers;
- Communicate confidently and maintain a conversation.
- Write using a wide ranging vocabulary and complex structures.
- Use pronunciation, intonation and spelling accurately.
- Make references to the culture and society of the country.
- Understand what is heard and the majority of what is read.
